

Moore Heritage Festival Highlights

2010 Theme: “Realizing the Vision – Home at Last”

Where

The Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore Heritage Festival of the Arts and Humanities for 2010 will take place at the Brevard Community College Titusville and Palm Bay Campuses and the Moore Memorial Park and Cultural Center in Mims, April 13-17.

Educational Symposium

Experience a wide variety of cultural awareness workshops and presentations during the Arts and Humanities sessions on both Thursday and Friday, April 15 & 16. The free educational sessions will be held at the BCC – Titusville Campus, on Thursday April 15 and BCC-Palm Bay Campus on Friday April 16. 9:00am-12:00 noon both days.

Tours of the Moore Cultural Center Museum/Moore Home Replica

The Moore Memorial Park, a Florida historical landmark and site of the Moore Family Home Replica is located at 2180 Freedom Ave., Mims. The cultural center will be offering tours April 15, 16 & 17 from Noon-6:00pm. Get a tour of the Moore Family Home Replica and view furnishings that graced the home where Evangeline Moore grew up with her parents, Harry and Harriette Moore.

“An Evening With Evangeline” - Dramatic Performance

This year’s “Evening with Evangeline” (the Moores surviving daughter) event will take you on a journey of Black History through a play, “Footprints” composed of short stories of prominent black Brevard County residents who played a part of the pioneering settlement of the area, including the pioneering civil rights work of Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore. This event will be held Tuesday, April 13, 6:30pm at the Greater St. Paul Baptist Church, 213 Stone Street, Cocoa, FL. Donations accepted.

Moore Festival Gala Awards Banquet

This elegant affair is the occasion of presenting the coveted Moore Freedom Award as well as the presentation of prizes awarded to the winning students of the festival essay competition. The gala is Friday, April 16 at the Holiday Inn –Viera (I-95 Exit 191 at Wickham Rd.). The reception begins at 6:30pm and dinner program begins at 7:30pm. A nationally known figure will be the keynote speaker. Tickets are $45.00 each. Corporate tables/sponsorships are available.

Street Festival

Enjoy food, arts & craft vendors, children’s play village, Buffalo Soldiers Motorcycle Club and entertainment by local and regionally known recording artists on Center Stage Saturday, April 17 along with entertainment by local and state youth choirs and praise teams participating in the Youth Gospel Fest. The street festival is an all day affair for the whole family. This event is held at the Moore Memorial Park, 2180 Freedom Ave. Mims. Hours are 9:00am-7:00pm.

!!! NEW on SATURDAY: Change Your Health

You got to move it, move it, on Saturday morning with free exercise classes, health screenings, dietary and nutritional classes and information on free health care. Change your health on Saturday, April 17 from 9:00am – 2:00pm at the Moore Memorial Park.

For more info contact: Bill Gary

Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore Cultural Complex, Inc.

/P.O. Box 817, Mims 32754

www.harryharriette.moore.org

Email: Gweg1999@aol.com

(321) 720-8933/(321) 269-8256