"The Mane Mail"

Taking our community by the tail!

Message from the President

July is here with a bang!. It is of course our nation's birthday and soon will be ours! We will soon have reached that one year mark and look at how far we have come and the great things we have accomplished for our club and our community.

You should all be very proud of yourselves for everything we have done together. I think our second year will be even more exciting than the first.

One of the new exciting changes that has happened is the relocation of the NBLC's meeting place. Driftwoods has become "Driftwoods at Royal Oak".

Yes, IT'S TRUE! Allison, Brad and the whole crew are moving their location and taking over the restaurant and all chef duties at Royal Oak Resort and Golf Club. They are working on the move as I write these words.

Well, I know there will be many questions, but I will try to answer a few of them here.

Some of the improvements will be a larger more private meeting room, more parking, a microphone and podium, and a facility that can provide us with a forum for district and community wide fundraising opportunities.

What is going to stay the same is the same great people, and the same great food and service we have come to expect from the staff at Driftwoods. I have been told that even the china and glasses are making the trip to the new location.

I am looking forward to our new home. I am glad we were invited to join in the move. I think we are the test run for the new digs. I think the premier will be great! See you all there!

From the Secretary's Desk

July 1st starts our second year as a club. Dues for the 2008-09 year are due now. I have invoices available that can be picked up at our meetings during July.

You can make two payments to satisfy your dues requirement. A reminder, dues must be current to be an active member of the club. If any member has a problem meeting the dues requirement, please call or e-mail me to work out a solution.

We are looking for donations to be used at our birthday bash raffle. Please call or email me to have the donations picked up.

People will be needed to work at the bash. Please call or e-mail me if you can help out.

Lions from throughout the District and State will be attending our party. It is very important that we have a good presentation and turnout of our 43 members.

Club positions are still available which do not require a lot of time to participate. If you would like to volunteer, please call King Lion Ed or myself.

Please help me wish Lion Dr. Edith Francis, all the best in her recovery - Lion Edith fell in Bangkok at the international conference and has fractured her pelvis. I believe she is recovering at the Wuesthoff Progressive Care Center.

We wish her a speedy trip home, and a fast recovery.

We also wish Lion Gil all the strength he needs as the new DG and taking care of Lion Edith!

North Brevard Lions Club Meetings

Second and Fourth Thursdays of each month, 12 o'clock Noon
Driftwoods at Royal Oak - 2150 Country Club Drive. ~ Titusville, FL 32780

Name the Mascot! A club contest!

Here is the new mascot for the North Brevard Lions Club.

This little guy was obtained and led back to Titusville by none other than Lion Smiley.

He is happy to live with us, but he needs a name!

What we would like to do is to give a lucky member of the North Brevard Lions Club or any other Lion for that matter, an opportunity to name the little guy.

You can submit a name into the name jar for $1.00.

You can submit your name as many times as you like, but each time costs $1.00.

You may submit as many different names as you like but each name costs $1.00.

After all names have been submitted and all votes placed we will draw the winning name.

This is a fun way to earn some dollars towards or clubs needs.

Just a few funnies.

Recently a guy in Paris nearly got away with stealing several paintings from the Louvre. However, after planning the crime, getting in and out past security, he was captured only 2 blocks away when his Econoline ran out of gas. When asked how he could mastermind such a crime and then make such an obvious error, he replied: "I had no Monet to buy Degas to make the Van Gogh."

Dear Lion Edmund

Thank you so much for the copy of your club bulletin, which no doubt was a 'JOB WELL DONE' most interesting, very informative and I must say it is a superb presentation.

You should know Edmund, I am required to read out all your communications and my replies we transact within the month at every regular monthly meeting. Before any other matters as tabulated in the agenda – it provides an item as – Report on International Relations – and I take charge of the podium to read out all communications. My members are so very keen to listen to all what I read, and the most interested are a couple of ladies of whom, one said the contents and your exposure was so very clear and that she could see very clearly the location of your club, the flowing river and across it the Space Shuttle Station and continued saying "I could even imagine a Space Shuttle being lifted on a moonless night". My members presented her with applause and I concluded saying 'Please don't forget the fact that Edmund is a professional photographer and everything what he sees is through a camera eye – and it's always a clear natural picture'.

I am also exploring the possibility of displaying your bulletin on a power point presentation at the next meeting if time provides because it is the first meeting of the new team of office bearers which may take time to present their program of work for the coming fiscal year.

Edmund, it will be interesting for you to hear that I too love photography and music. Though I am not a professional, I like the Pentax Camera models. It has been coming through my ancestors and gone up to my son. My family has only one child and is today a young man of 32 years – he has inherited the picture and music in a deeper scale and is busy in getting married at the end of the year.

As indicated to you my next responsibility is to elaborate further on the activities of my club and the community that we serve. I should do it very soon though I had a small delay because I was too involved with the matters on the International Convention in Bangkok and my 32 member delegation and a few ladies who attended the ceremony.

Will come back to you with more information soon

Thank you,
Yours in lionism –

Contact your local Lions Club

With our close working relationship with Lions Clubs all over the country, members in your local club are more than willing to assist you with enlisting our services. Contacting your local Lions club may also prove helpful for future needs as well.

Once an application is received, it will be reviewed by our Admissions Committee and eligible applicants will be notified by mail of their acceptance, their class assignment and some information on their travel arrangements. Individuals who are applying and receiving a dog for the first time should expect to reside at the school for 26 days. If you are a returning student, the stay is 19 days. There is some flexibility on the number of training days necessary and can be adjusted on a case by case basis accordingly.

From Lions International:

Lions Raise More Than US $200 Million to Save Sight

Bangkok, Thailand, June 26, 2008—Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) and Lions around the world have exceeded their campaign challenge goal of US$200 million for their flagship, global blindness-prevention program, SightFirst. Funds raised during Campaign SightFirst II (CSFII), a three-year worldwide campaign operated by the international charitable foundation, will save or restore the vision of more than 37 million people around the world.

Led by 7,000 CSFII Lion volunteers, Lions surpassed their initial US$150 million goal in February, four months in advance of CSFII's conclusion. During the final month of the campaign alone, Lions raised more than US$20 million to surpass the US$200 million challenge goal.

"The efforts of Lions worldwide over the last three years makes me incredibly proud to be a Lion," says Dr. Tae-Sup Lee, Lions past international president and CSFII chairperson. "Through CSFII, our role as 'Knights of the Blind' will continue for years to come because of the dedication of our volunteers and all of our donors. Most importantly, LCIF and Lions will be able to continue to deliver the excellent services of the SightFirst program and thereby ensure that millions of individuals around the world are able to live with the gift of sight."

At least US$100 million of CSFII funds will be granted through LCIF's SightFirst program to contain and eliminate the leading causes of avoidable blindness, including cataract, the leading cause of preventable blindness worldwide.

Another US$50 million will be used to combat new and emerging threats to sight, including diabetic retinopathy, macular degeneration and low vision. The funds raised beyond the US$150 million initial goal will make it possible for Lions to fund research and rehabilitation initiatives in developed countries. Lions' goal is to provide "Vision for All."

SightFirst was launched by Lions in 1989 to battle preventable and reversible blindness. Lions estimate US$6 is the average cost to save or restore a person's sight through SightFirst. Lions have already restored sight to more than 27 million people by funding cataract surgeries, vision screenings and treatment, and improved eye-care services for hundreds of millions of people in underserved areas in 91 countries around the world. Lions have also built eye hospitals in developing countries and trained eye health care workers where there were previously none.

CSFII officially concluded during the 91st Annual Lions Clubs International Convention in Bangkok, Thailand on Thursday, June 26 when the final dollar amount raised was announced. More than 18,000 Lions clubs members, including international media, from around the world were present for this historic announcement for LCIF.

2008-2009 International President Knows Who the Heroes Are

New International President Al Brandel is down to earth. But his life has been cinematic. As a police officer, he rushed to help a child run over by a car. Years later, he played a part in responding to the September 11 attacks.

Turn the lens on his childhood, and a Frank Capra movie breaks out. Brandel spent his boyhood in a green-lawned neighborhood, with a hardworking World War II vet father, a mother always ready with dinner, and four siblings. And he was the slugger on a baseball team enshrined in the Little League Hall of Fame. Movies are an apt reference for Brandel. His presidential year will contain drama, heroes, and miracles. And by the final reel, he wants Lions to understand that they are the real stars of the show.

Membership Has its Rewards

Brandel's highlights as a Lion include the time he and his wife Maureen worked on a Lions-Habitat for Humanity home. A young girl who was to live in the house showed them her new room. "It was very emotional," he says. "It's not just writing a check that makes you a Lion. It's when you're painting the walls in a house you've just built. And you see the people – that it will be their house."

Brandel joined the West Hempstead Lions Club in 1975 while he was a police officer for Nassau County. A friend, Frank Anzalone, was a hemophiliac. Anzalone was a Lion, and the club put together a blood drive. "The first year Frank asked me to give blood at the drive, and I did," says Brandel. "The second year he asked me to work on the blood drive, and I did. The third year he asked me to work on the blood drive, and to become a Lion."

Brandel helped revive the club as its president in 1977. His goal was to launch a signature project – and the club agreed to provide a "jaws of life" rescue tool for the community. Lions members loaned the club $5,400 to pay for it. Brandel figured it would take three or four years to raise funds to repay members. But it only took one year. "My most rewarding year as a Lion was when I was club president," he says. "You see the immediate effect of what you do."

Raised to Serve

Volunteering ran in Brandel's family. Despite working two jobs, his father "had time for the community," says Brandel. In college, a friend convinced Brandel to take a test for the police department. He did well on the test, and the job. He put in 35 years before retiring. And learned how to handle his emotions. "I understood I had to react in a certain way to be effective," he says.

The events of September 11, 2001 put his ability to handle tough situations to the test. Brandel took reports for many of the 400 missing Nassau County residents, and worked with Lions' leaders from New York and elsewhere to coordinate recovery support efforts. Later, he volunteered for a bereavement retreat. And trudged to doorsteps to notify families when victims' remains were found.

By then, Brandel was a detective with the police department's Juvenile Aid Bureau. He investigated missing children, child abuse, and juvenile crime. "I really understood I could make somebody's life a little better," he says.

From Lions International:

Meeting Maureen

On their first date, Brandel told his future wife Maureen that he was “a little involved with the Lions.” “What’s a Lion?” she asked. “I was really impressed that a 40-year-old man who could spend his time doing whatever he wanted chose to spend that free time in a volunteer organization.”

Brandel became an international director the year they married, and she traveled the world with him. Maureen joined the Melville Lions Club in 1999, became its president, and then district leadership chairperson. Brandel joined her club as an associate member. “She serves as a role model to spouses that you can have your own career as a Lion.”

Heroes of Service

As a Lion, Brandel has hand-delivered corneas for transplant, worked with UNICEF to ensure children in disaster areas could continue their education, and saw a Lions district in South Africa feed multitudes. “Lions don’t understand the impact they have on the community,” he says.

“The real modern-day heroes may never be on TV or have a book written about them,” Brandel says. “But the things they do, like bringing a food basket, put a smile on somebody’s face. Lions Clubs are making a big impact in people’s lives. My role is to let everybody know the miracles happening around the world – and that they can make miracles happen in their backyard.”

President's Message Contined...

I would like to take a moment to thank outgoing District Governor Lion Roger Messer. Lion Roger was always ready to answer questions and offer advice when needed. I feel fortunate the we got to see more of him than most other clubs. I was proud to have Lion Roger as our Chartering District Governor and I wish him and his family all the best in life and Lionism.

I am also pleased to welcome incoming District Governor Lion Gil Francis and Vice District Governor Lion Anne Greer.

I am very excited to be involved in Lionism this year with both of these fine Lions.

I am sure we are going to have a fun year with Lion Gil and Lion Anne at the helm of our district, and I am positive that we are all going to learn a tremendous amount from them both.

If you have not talked with either of these individuals you are doing yourself an injustice. They have much to teach us all. I have already learned a great deal from them both.

Well, I guess I have taken up more than my share of space this issue. I try to put as much information at your fingertips as I can each month. I know you are all busy and I appreciate those that read our newsletter.

I goal is to make if fun and informative and to try to get you to enjoy reading it as much as I enjoy producing it. Maybe I can win the newsletter contest this year. That would be really fun.

See you soon! ~ EMk
