

Group Registration Form:

School/Group Name &

Address: _____

Teacher/Leader Name & Contact

Number: _____

Number of Students/Participants: _____ Number of Teachers/ Adults: _____

Ages/Grades: _____

Date Requested: _____ Time of Arrival: _____ Craft: Yes ___ No ___

Email Address: _____

Send form to Rachel Burris, Director of Education at the Brevard Museum of History and Natural Science

(mail/fax/email/phone). A confirmation letter will be emailed or mailed to you once your request is received.

Cancellations must be made 48 hours in advance by phone or email. If 48 hours cancellation is not given, you will be invoiced for a @$25.00 set up fee.

Brevard Museum of History and Natural Science

Conveniently located between
I-95, US 1 and 528.

2201 Michigan Avenue
Cocoa, FL 32926
(321) 632-1830
Fax: (321) 631- 7551

brevardmuseum@gmail.com

For more information contact:
Rachel Burris, Director of Education
Rachel.a.burris@gmail.com

Check out the website and Facebook for more pictures and events!
www.brevardmuseum.org

@BrevardMuseum

Non-Profit 501(c)(3)

Brevard Museum of History and Natural Science

Education Department

Field Trips Available

Where History Comes Alive!

Exhibits include:

- "Windover" Archaeology
- Florida's Indians
- Citrus Industry
- Grace & Albert Taylor
- Florida Cracker Cowboys
- Canaveral Lighthouse
- Turpentine
- Florida's East Coast Railroad
- Selena Roberts, Pioneer Woman
- Extensive Shell Collection
- Natural Habitats
- Fossils of By-Gone Beasts

In addition,

A 22 Acre Nature Preserve with paved trails and Wetlands Boardwalk.

Natural Butterfly Garden.

Four picnic tables outside.

Photos of Exhibits

Tours and Fieldtrips

Tour Prices (advanced registration required):

- Groups of 15+ $5.00/person.
- Groups of 15+ with craft $6.00/person.
- 1 teacher per every 10 students is admitted free.

Operating Hours:

Thursday-Saturday 10am-4pm

Last entrance to the Museum is at 3pm

Tours are available Monday-Saturday with a 15 person minimum and one week notice.

The Museum is full of local history and hands-on artifacts for students of all ages to enjoy. Tours can be concentrated to specific subject areas if desired. Florida has a rich history represented in the Museum, from mastodons and giant ground sloths to Windover Americans, living here 7,000 years ago, to the Seminole Indians and Pioneer Settlers.