

Help us feed needy children throughout the year by participating in the Kids Cafe Afterschool Meal Program

Kids Cafe is a state subsidized, USDA funded program known as the After School Meal Program (AMP,) regulated and overseen by the Florida Department of Health's Bureau of Child Nutrition Services.

As sponsors, we provide food, administrative support, operational guidance, and direct assistance to our participating partners.

Requirements:

- ◆ Be a non-profit or faith-based organizations with a fixed, safe location where children can be served in the afternoon throughout the school year.
- ◆ Be located in an area of high-need and low household income.
- ◆ Be able to serve at least 25 children daily.
- ◆ Have at least one adult per 25 children on-site to offer a structured and organized setting for meal service.
- ◆ Agree to operate under the State of Florida's Child Care Food Program's rules and regulations.
- ◆ Be committed to long-term, multi-year participation.
- ◆ Be able to attend orientation and training sessions on a yearly basis.
- ◆ Be able to maintain records of daily operation and submit reports on a monthly basis.
- ◆ Set fixed afternoon hours for daily feeding.
- ◆ Provide enrichment activities or other types of programming at your location.
- ◆ Pass a Department of Health sanitation inspection.
