DON'T LET OLD PERSONAL TAPED MEMORIES FADE AWAY!

Do you have old VHS tapes or audio cassette tapes featuring family and friends at birthday parties, reunions, etc.? Tapes you can no longer play and enjoy? Tapes that are becoming brittle and memories that may be fading with time?

Please contact Bob Davy. He was an Emmy award-winning producer at Maryland Public Television for 16 years and is now offering a VERY cheap service to help ensure you can enjoy your memories!

He will record your old tapes onto TWO (2) DVDs or CDs absolutely FREE! For each additional CD, he asks a donation of $5 each, or $10 for each additional DVD, to help defray the cost of producing them for you. If you can't afford these donations, he will accept whatever you can afford.

To contact Mr. Davy, please call him at 541-552-1277 or email him at robt Davy@gmail.com.

ENGLISH "WITERATURE"

Entries in the annual Bulwer-Lytton Fiction Contest — Intentionally bad lines from non-existent novels:

Corinne considered the colors (palest green, gray and lavender) and the texture (downy as the finest velvet) and wondered, "Just how long have these cold cuts been in my refrigerator?"

Tucked in a dim corner of The Ample Bounty Bar & Grille, Alice welcomed the fervent touch of the mysterious stranger's experienced hands because she had not been this close with a man in an achingly long time and, quivering breathlessly, began to think that this could be the beginning of something real, something forever ... and not just a one-time encounter with a good Samaritan who was skilled at the Heimlich Maneuver.
