Congratulations to Audrey Bell our April Member in the Spotlight! Audrey moved from Fort Lauderdale to Titusville in November 2020. She joined the North Brevard Senior Center last year and enjoys the different classes she attends. Robin met Audrey in the parking lot before her 1st class, she was outside walking. Robin told her we started a Zumba class and to join us sometime. She followed Robin into the 1st class and has been at every morning class since January 5, 2022. Audrey is a retired Accountant and her hobbies are reading, writing and dancing. Audrey loves all music and has won several dance contests with her husband Harry Bell while they lived in Jamaica. Audrey has a son Andre and daughter Jacqueline. Audrey encourages dancing as a great exercise that contributes to enjoying life and being happy while staying active. Audrey is a member of the Zumba class and loves every minute being there! We are so very proud of Audrey. and Zumba class loves dancing with her!
