In Loving Memory

Marian Lundeen, a Board Member , a Receptionist Tuesday's Mornings , and our Librarian for the North Brevard Senior Center.

She passed away peacefully on Thursday, March 17th at St. Francis Hospice Center in Titusville, FL

Marian was born March 20, 1931 in Youngstown, Ohio.

Marian was a registered nurse for 25 years retiring in 1996.

Many people didn't know that she went to clown school and her nick name was "Crinkles"

She was a member of St Patrick Roman Catholic Church, Hubbard Community Fund, Titusville Elks Lodge and of course a special person at the North Brevard Senior Center.

Marian enjoyed painting, playing cards, crocheting and knitting, especially blankets for her great-grandchildren. She will be fondly remembered and sadly missed by her family 2 Daughters, 1 son, 6 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

There will be a private service at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to St. Francis Hospice- 1250 Grumman Place, Titusville, FL 32780

In Loving Memory

Yvette D Abreu passed away peacefully on March 30 at the age of 96. Her thoughtfulness, highly entertaining letters, crazy sense of humor, and rich laughter will be greatly missed. She was a very persistent person.

Natine was asked how long has her mom attended the Muscle Memory Strength and Balance class. She stated that when it first started at the Senior Center she was going to just drop mom off but Yvette told Natine this would be a good mother/daughter bonding experience . And they continued every week and even when Natine took over the class she was with her daughter for every class. (And we know she is looking over the class each week) She is survived by her children (Natine (George), Thomas (Diane) Michelle (Stephen) and Anthony (Mary) 5 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to St. Francis Hospice- 1250 Grumman Place, Titusville, FL 32780
